WELCOME TO THE LIBRARY

This guide should help you find your way through the variety of books in this library. It contains a plan of the library rooms, the distribution of books, a key to the shelf marks, and guidelines to the handling and borrowing of books.

Please try to work as much as possible in the library and keep the books here. If you have any problems concerning the library or this guide (we are open to suggestions for improvement), do not hesitate to ask Mario Piscazzi, the librarian, or the assistants for information.

Overview

The Seminar library contains approximately 30'000 volumes, a number of periodicals, and a collection of audio cassettes and videos. It covers the following areas:

1. Literary works in English
2. Criticism relating to these works
3. Literary history
4. Literary theory and history of criticism
5. History of language and linguistics
6. Modern linguistics
7. General information (dictionaries, encyclopaedias, historical and social works, etc.)

Catalogues and OPAC

OPAC (Online Public Access Catalogue)-ALEPH

Note: In the OPAC system, books in the English Seminar library appear with “ENG” before the shelf mark. This is not a part of the shelf mark you encounter in our library – yet, it is important for the electronic library system.

Borrowing Books

As of December 2013 the Department of English has an electronic library system. Books need to be checked out using the computers and bar code readers on the Veranda (1st and 2nd floor) or in the library room in Nadelberg 4, and your library or student card ("Legi").

Please consult the instructions on the sheet next to the computers!

Returning Books

Books need to be returned to the book box in front of Room 16 on the first floor of the Department of English.

If you happen to have any questions, please do not hesitate to ask the student assistants (hiwis-englsem@unibas.ch; or directly in room 16) or the librarian (bibliothek-anglistik@unibas.ch).

How to access the Library- catalogue:

1. Enter the following link in your browser: <http://baselbern.swissbib.ch/>
2. In case you have any questions, go to:
<http://www.ub.unibas.ch/ub-hauptbibliothek/dienstleistungen/auskunft/>
3. We also recommend you take you a short guided tour. Find more information under:
<http://www.ub.unibas.ch/ub-hauptbibliothek/dienstleistungen/schulungen-fuehrungen/>

Follow these instructions carefully.

This is your contribution towards guaranteeing that you and your fellow-students (and those coming after you) can fully enjoy the opportunities offered by the library. If you work with a book at the Seminar and do not take it home, PUT IT BACK TO ITS PLACE ON THE SHELF (esp. dictionaries and encyclopaedias).

The Seminar library only contains part of the publications in our field. It is complemented by the holdings of the University library. In case the publication you are looking for is not in Basel, you will have to use the inter-library loan system (interbibliothekarischer Leihverkehr) to order it nationally or internationally (enquire at the information desk at the University Library).

If you should happen to have any questions, ask the student assistants, assistants or the librarian for help.
